BASIS FOR REJECTIONS

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless --

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(c) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

OBJECTION TO DRAWINGS

The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the feature where the sheet metal rests on a surface of the die while another portion of the sheet metal is formed with an over hanging shape with a groove formed in the bent portion of the sheet metal must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

REJECTION OF CLAIMS ON FORMAL MATTERS

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claims 1-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention. In this regard, the original disclosure fails to provide details on how the sheet metal, with its bent portion, can be positioned on the press, punch and die combination so as to form a groove therein. Accordingly, the nexus between the specifically shown press, punch and die combination (Figure 3) and its operation on the particularly depicted sheet material (Figures 1 and 2) is not provided.

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 2 and 3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. Failure to clearly provide what “it” refers to in claim 2 renders the subject matter indefinite. As to claim 3, failure to provide antecedence for “bent portion” renders the subject matter indefinite.

REJECTION OF CLAIMS OVER PRIOR ART

Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Minkel (2,102,572). See Figure 3 where the axis of the punch 44 is at an acute angle to the surface of the die 21.

Claims 1 and 2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Parent (3,22,765). See Figure 20 where a surface of the die 205 is at an acute angle relative to the axis of the punch 211. The sheet metal work piece T, F, R, in the shape of a bowl shaped disc, is mounted so that it can be indexed. As to claim 2, see Figure 22 where the punch 225 has an axis that is acute relative to a surface of the die 223'. The device of Figure 22 has the capability of bending individual beams.

Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Ingersoll (2,705,534). See Figure 1 where the punch 11 has an axis that is acute relative to a surface of the die 31.

Claims 1-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Ueda (JP 57-184530). See Figure 1 where the axis of the punch 20 extends at an acute angle relative to a surface of the die 2, such die supporting a portion of the sheet metal while the other portion of the sheet metal is formed by the punch “with an over hanging shape” in the form of an embossment/groove. The groove is formed in a “bent portion” of the sheet metal. Since the device shown by Ueda has the capability of supporting a circular disc that has “separate extending beams on the outer diameter”, the claimed apparatus is met by the applied prior art.

PRIOR ART CITED BY EXAMINER

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

RESPONSE BY APPLICANT(S)

Applicant(s) response to be fully responsive and to provide for a clear record must specifically point out how the language of the claims patentably distinguishes them from the references, both those references applied in the objections and rejections and those references cited in view of the state of the art in accordance with 37 CFR 1.111 (a), (b) and (c).
